George M. Nuthu is a Leadership Development Coach and Consultant whose mission is to inspire and influence leaders to discover their potential, draw out their passion, develop their proficiency and demonstrate high performance so that their teams drive up productivity and their businesses deliver profitability. His appreciative approach to leadership development focuses on what has and is working within the leaders' context and capitalizes on these strengths to serve, stir and support the leaders to dream, desire and determine whatever they want to be, have and become.

For the past 20 years, George has been involved in designing, developing and delivering training and coaching programs centered on teamwork, performance management, leadership development and talent management to business leaders, C-suite and Senior leaders plus middle-level leaders, both in the private and public sectors. As a Workshop Facilitator and Coach, he has delivered equipped and empowered hundreds of such leaders, in-person and online, from East, West and South Africa, South-East Asia, Middle East and USA.

As an Associate Coach Trainer and Mentor Coach for three coaching training institutes, George has trained, coached and mentored many coach trainees across Africa. He is also a Certified Professional Analyst of EQ, DISC and Motivators/Driving Forces on top of being an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya and a retired ordained minister. His experience as a lawyer and pastor makes him greatly appreciate the intrigues and complexities of human behavior.
